

BritishAmericanBusiness

Open for Business

What a transatlantic free trade agreement means to the UK food & drink sector

This event will explore the changes and benefits a transatlantic trade agreement can bring to the UK food & drink sector. Participants will be offered a unique platform for exchange and networking with insights from a senior expert panel including local business, international companies, government and trade associations.

Thursday 25 June 2015 | 08.30 – 11.00

Agenda

08.30 Registration and Networking

09.00 Panel Discussion

10.15 Q&A

After the event participants are welcome to meet speakers and organisers of the event, including: BritishAmerican Business, East Midlands Chamber, Department for Business, Innovation & Skills (BIS), Samworth Brothers, UK Trade and Investment (UKTI), US Embassy, UPS.

Location

Charnwood Bakery 200 Madeline Rd Leicester, LE4 1EX

To book your place or for further information, please contact:

Emanuel Adam

Policy & Public Affairs Manager
Policy@babinc.org
020 7290 9885

Attendance free by invitation only

Local Partner

Hosted by

Samworth Brothers

QUALITY FOODS

Series Sponsors

Supported by

Department for Business Innovation & Skills

UK Trade & Investment